Test first, permit here

Take the knowledge test through the state's online test or a state testing location. official DMV or BMV offices issue your temporary permit after you pass.

BRING THESE

Bring these for permit issuance

-  Identity and legal presence
Certified U.S. birth certificate or U.S. passport, originals or certified copies.

-  Social Security proof
Social Security card, W-2, or 1099.

-  Two Ohio address proofs
From different sources, such as a utility bill and a bank statement.

-  Parent or guardian if under 18
A parent or legal guardian must be present to sign and show their own valid ID.

-  Proof of passing and payment
Proof you passed the knowledge test, plus payment for the permit fee.

DECISION POINT

Where to take the test

Online

Ohio offers the knowledge test through BMV Online Services with an OHID account. Follow the state's proctoring and ID rules.

In person

State driver exam stations always administer testing. Use the locator on bmv.ohio.gov.

Then the official office

Bring proof of passing and your documents to an official DMV or BMV office for vision screening and permit issuance.

AT THE VISIT

Simple steps

- 1 Study the Ohio Driver Manual. Every question comes from it.

- 2 Take the 40-question knowledge test and pass with 75 percent.

- 3 Bring your documents and proof of passing to an official DMV or BMV office.

- 4 Complete the vision screening and leave with your TIPIC.

Avoid a return trip

Do not skip the manual. Passing the first time saves a repeat trip.

Do not come without a parent or guardian if you are under 18.

Do not bring only one proof of address. You need two, from different sources.
